A Cathedral Christmas 2011

December 3, 2011, at 2:00 p.m. December 9 & 10, 2011, at 8:00 p.m.
Bastyr University Chapel Saint Mark's Cathedral
14500 Juanita Drive NE, Kenmore 1245 10th Ave East, Seattle

A Festival of Carols by Frank Ferko
Advent Antiphons by Bob Chilcott

And carols of the season by distinguished American choral composers Eric Barnum, Abbie Betinis, Jackson Berkey, Bern Herbolsheimer, and Steven Sametz.

Now in its fourth year, A Cathedral Christmas has become a tradition shared by friends and loved ones. Join us for another December program of holiday carols, spacious sounds, and memories that will carry you through the season.

One-half hour before the start of the program, Maestro Coleman and SCC singers will lead you in a carol sing-along!

"The voices are knit together by the vision and leadership of Freddie Coleman, its founding conductor. Coleman has always had an adventurous mind when it comes to programming, and the SCC's latest concert showed it."

Classics Concert

March 31, 2012, at 2:00 p.m.
Saint Mark's Cathedral
1245 10th Ave East, Seattle

Mass No. 2 in E minor for Choir & Winds by Anton Bruckner

Three Sacred Pieces, Op. 23 by Felix Mendelssohn

"Lobet den Herrn, alle Heiden," Motet BWV 230, by Johann Sebastian Bach

Our mid-season concert is a feast for the musical palate, beginning with the brilliant precision of J.S. Bach and continuing with Bach-inspired motets by Felix Mendelssohn. Cap it off with Anton Bruckner's exquisite and seldom-performed Mass in E minor for two large choirs and wind orchestra—a devout work combining moments of quiet a cappella tranquility with passages of soaring beauty and power.

Rachmaninov Vespers

June 3, 2012, at 2:00 p.m. June 8 & 9, 2012, at 8:00 p.m.
Bastyr University Chapel Saint Mark's Cathedral
14500 Juanita Drive NE, Kenmore 1245 10th Ave East, Seattle

Vespers (All-Night Vigil) by Sergei Rachmaninov

Rachmaninov's Vespers is a masterpiece of Russian choral sonority, draped in rich, warm harmonies. First performed in Moscow in 1915, this extended a cappella work is unquestionably one of Rachmaninov's finest achievements, a work of extraordinary beauty and drama that many consider to be the crowning glory of Russian choral music.

New Year's Eve with the Seattle Choral Company, Featuring Carmina Burana

December 31, 2011

Two performances!

7:00 8:00 p.m. and 9:30 10:30 p.m.

The Theatre at Meydenbauer Center
11100 NE 6th Street, Bellevue

Our New Year's Eve concert was an unqualified success last December when we brought Carmina Burana to the Theatre at Meydenbauer Center for the first time. Make this event one of your holiday traditions, and add either performance to your New Year's Eve schedule of events!

We will present the composer's chamber version for two pianos and percussion.

With guest artists:

Piano Duo VENTIDITA, Deborah Dewey and Lisa Bergman; Jennifer Ceresa, soprano; Paul Karaitis, tenor; Benjamin Harris, baritone

*"The concert was first class in its own right...
Coleman elicited performances which were exciting, vital, even thrilling to hear."*
